

KALERIS

2023 Quarterly Newsletter

The Latest News

Maximizing Liquid Bulk Efficiency with Yard and Transload Management (YTM)

Recent railroad derailments and accidents have highlighted risks in the rail shipping industry, specifically around hazardous liquids. Kaleris has been focused on delivering capabilities to better support workflows for liquid bulk shippers to ensure safe, efficient, and traceable transportation of their products.

Read the Press Release ►

Reduce truck yard check-in time by over 80% with Kaleris Driver Pre-check-in.

The combination of the new driver pre-check-in app and multi-language gate kiosks directly connected to the Kaleris YMS empowers facilities to maximize productivity through automated and time-saving practices for both inbound and outbound yard shipments.

Read the Full Article ►

Realizing the Full Business Benefits of Supply Chain Visibility

Valuable Industry Insights from Adrian Gonzalez, President Adelante SCM

Download Now ►►►

Georgia Ports Authority and Kaleris Win 2023 Top Supply Chain Projects Award

Get to know more about what Tower Checker does, its benefits, integrations, and more in this video.

Watch the Video ►

Shippers! Interested in more insight to interactions with the terminals?

Check Out the Kaleris Lighthouse Customer Program

We are excited to partner with key customers to accelerate innovation

Subscribe to relevant product webinars to stay up to date with the latest product updates, press releases, customer connections, customer features, and more!

Subscribe Now ►

Upcoming Sponsorships & Events

IANA 2023
Sept 18-21, 2023
Las Vegas, NV USA

Breakbulk Americas 2023
Sept 26-28, 2023
Houston, TX USA

Grocery Shop 2023
Sept 18-21, 2023
Las Vegas, NV USA

See Our Full List of Events ►

KALERIS