

Dear Customer and Valued Partner,

We are pleased to formally invite you to our Kaleris MRO Roundtable, taking place on October 13th in Dallas, Texas. Your participation in this event is extremely valuable to us and to fellow Kaleris customers, as we continue to benchmark customer success through innovation, multi-modal collaboration, and more.

At Kaleris, we see this event as an important opportunity to empower our customers with access to engage with each other, so that together, we can unlock meaningful information that drives resilience, fosters economic growth, and connects people with the goods they need.

This event will include interactive sessions that address current industry challenges and strategies to solve them. Your unique insight will help inspire how we prioritize innovations that help you succeed today and grow with you to achieve your future goals.

As a valued customer and an industry leader, we would be honored to have your attendance at our roundtable this Fall. Your expertise and unique perspective would significantly enhance the event.
